 Instructions to applicants ***

1. Read
- The synopsis of the training programme
- The description of each individual research projects (IRPs)
- The conditions and requirements to participate to the programme

2. Fill the application form
The form contains dedicated fields where the following information is requested
- Contact details
- Education:
  - Master degree (Title, University, Country)
  - Supervisor of the research project(s), (Name, University, Country)
- Prior experience
  - in handling a model organism or cell culture (indicate the species)
  - in cell biology techniques (FISH, immunolabeling, fluorescent staining)
  - in microscopy imaging (type of microscope and images produced)
  - in image analysis (process type, software)
  - in other computational biology areas
  - in script writing and programming (software, aim)
- Project selection: give a ranked choice of a maximum of three IRP of interest
- Motivation
  - for the training programme (max 50 words)
  - for the chosen IRPs (max 100 words)
- Confirmation that the applicant has read the documents listed in 1
- Additional confidential information relevant to the application

3. Upload (pdf only)
- a CV (1 page)
- a letter of motivation for the training programme and the selected IRPs (1 page)
- contact details of 2-3 reference persons
- degree certificate and grades for Bachelor and Master degree (majors and minors)
- Completed application form

  You need to combine all these documents into a single file.
  For example, You can use https://combinepdf.com/ to create a single PDF file.

Incomplete application will not be considered.
Upon completion of the application
- you will receive an email of confirmation.
- you will be informed by May 15th if you are short listed for an interview
- Interviews take place online, June 15th-18th with the principal investigators (PI) and co-PI of each selected projects. The exact date will be communicated latest June 5th.
- The results of the interview will be communicated latest June 20th
- Start Date: September 1st (unless otherwise agreed with the supervisor)

For questions, please contact contact@msca-agile.eu.